

Georgia Golden Olympics

*"Let me compete to the best of my
potential in the spirit of fun, fairness and fellowship"*

The Georgia Golden Olympics program began in 1983 and is dedicated to providing individual and team sports competition, recreational events, clinics, and opportunities for socialization and fun. It strives to improve the health and well being of Georgia's Older Adults through the state event and through the 25 local events held across the state. The organization (Georgia Golden Games, Inc.) received 501(c)(3) status in 1987 and is funded by in-kind contributions from the coordinating organizations and by contributions from corporations, community groups and individual friends and supporters. Your support is greatly appreciated.
